Mr. C. C. TAYLOR, a farmer of Pulaski county sent his crop of wool to Xenia, Ohio, and received 55 cents per pound for it. The wool was sent as it came from the backs of the sheep .- Somerset Gazette.

A memorial of Henry Clay .- Mr. Dabney offers Clay Springs Farm, the birth-place of Henry Clay, for sale. It is in Hanover county, Va, about 20 miles east of Richmond. It might have been bought, five years ago, for half its present value. Owing to the use of Those precious words of kindness, as a gift for BEESWAX, P is 20@25 "calcareous manures," and the example of Edmund Ruffin, who resides in the county, old farmes have been doubled and quadrupled in value.

A Rich Affair .- The Pittsburgh Post is responsible for the following. The girls, it seems, did not strip for the fight, but they were soon stripped after they got into it:

Two young ladies residing in Alleghany City, vesterday settled a little difficulty which had sprung up between them, by a resort to hair pulling, scratching, dress tearing, &c. One of the ladies-so the story runs-fancied herself secure in the affections of a nice young man, when the other stepped in, and either by force of superior charms, or by the frailty of the mail biped, succeeded in bringing him to her feet .-Miss A. could'nt stand it-it was too much for dies met, and Miss A. commenced an attack upon Miss B., and such was the bitterness existing between the two, that not a word was spoken, and that's strange, too, considering they bonnets were torn off then shawls and handkerchiefs followed; the dress came next, and then -but no matter what; but in a few minuets, the two young ladies were standing within a ring which had been formed, perfectly denued of their clothing, with the exception of their shoes and stockings. Such was the bitterness of feeling existing, that the fight would have continued, had not a relative of one of the combattants succeeded in dragging and pushing the ladies into a house, where they were pacified .-Both the young ladies are very respectable, and this sudden ebullition of their pugilistic propropensities has surprised every one. The young man is lucky, the way we look at it, and the girls foolish.

Loudon, April 29, 1853. WORLD'S FARE. THE present age is truly a great era, in the World's History. Coloric engines, Magnetic Telegraphs, &c. And the Arts and sciences so improved in point of correctness and simplicity, that it only requires one fourth of the time and expense, now, to gain a competent knowledge of many of the Arts, that was required 20 years ago. For example, Twenty years ago it required from 10 to 20 days to learn the art of Garment Cutting; now by the aid of J. S. BONHAM'S improved Garment Cutter, any Lady of common capacity can gain a practical knowledge of this truly nterestion and necessary branch of domestic econo my, in from 1 to 2 days. By this Best Rule of Garment Cutting, the Ladies are up with the Tailor, and in many case they remder more satisfaction than the Tailor-their Coats, Pants and Vests, fit neat easy and fashionable. This work is now seiling in 14 of the Southern and Wester States. A part of the Western and all the Eastern States are yet for sale, and I am giving a most extraordinary chance to make noney in the sale of the Copy Right of States, &c , for further information as to the sale of the Copy Right, Orders for Patterns, &c., address me [Post Paid] at Louisville, Tenn.

Respectfully, JAMES S. BONHAM. Publisher & Propretor.
